7. Nomination of Athletes

- a) The Team will be nominated to the Australian Commonwealth Games Association as a result of the following process. Three selection Events in each discipline will be conducted to enable competitors to be ranked.

Clay Target	-	ACTA National Championships	18 – 24 Jan 10	Brisbane
		AISL Australia Cup Open	26 – 28 Mar 10	MGC
		AISL Australia Cup Open	30 Apr- 2 May 10	Sydney
Pistol/Rifle	-	AISL Australia Cup Open 2	12 - 14 Mar 10	Sydney
		AISL Australia Cup Open 3	7 – 9 May 10	Sydney
		AISL Australia International GP	18 - 20 June 10	Sydney

- b) Ranking will be determined by the aggregate of the two highest scores (without the finals) from the competitions listed above.
- The athlete with the highest aggregate score from their two highest scores at the nomination competitions will be ranked first.
 - Where there are two or more shooters with a tied aggregate score from their two highest scores then the tie will be broken by a shoot off round conducted under ISSF finals conditions.
 - In the unlikely event that a tie still exists then it will be broken by a miss and out shoot off under ISSF tie break rules
 - All shoot offs for team placing will be conducted prior to the final of the last selection competition.
 - If two or more athletes have equal aggregate scores from their two highest scores in non-Olympic events; then the tie will be broken by ISSF Rules.
- c) After the conclusion of the third nomination competition the AISL Selection Panel will nominate the two athletes in each event to the ACGA to compete at the Commonwealth Games 2010 in India by:
- The first ranked athletes in each event from the nomination competitions will be selected automatically,
 - the second athlete will be selected by the AISL Selection Panel in its absolute discretion from the second and third ranked athletes following the conclusion of the three nomination competitions.
- d) In using its discretion the AISL Selection Panel will make any decision based on athletes' performance and selecting the strongest possible medal chance in each event. Past performance at international competitions will also be taken in consideration for each of athletes.
- e) AISL Selection Panel :
- AISL HP Manager
 - AISL National Coach for each discipline
 - ACTA/PA/TRA representative
