AUSTRALIAN INTERNATIONAL SHOOTING LIMITED (“AISL”)

- 4.2 Ranking will be determined by the aggregate of the two highest scores (without the finals) from the Competitions listed above. Where there are two or more shooters with a tied score then the tie will be broken by a shoot off prior to the finals of the Australian International Shooting Ltd, Australia Cup 6th – 9th May 2010.
- 4.3 Those athletes ranked first in each event will be considered for nomination to the AOC for selection to the 2010 Australian Youth Olympic Team, provided they have minimum qualifying score (MQS) listed in 2.6 (i – iv) above.
- 4.4 AISL will only nominate athletes equal in number to the number of quota places for the 2010 Youth Olympic Games available to Australia (to be confirmed after the 2009 Oceania Championships in Sydney 28th Nov – 2nd December 2009), noting that shooting has only two positions available within the Australian Youth Olympic Team as outlined in Section 3.
- 4.5 AISL will nominate athletes for selection to the AOC at such time as required by the AOC, but no later than 5pm on 1 July 2010.

5. SELECTIONS:

- 5.1 The AISL Selection Panel will in its absolute discretion choose the athletes with the strongest possible medal chance for the nominations to the AOC. In doing so, they will consider the athletes performances between the 1st of February 2009 and 9th May 2010.
- 5.2 The selection panel will comprise the relevant AISL National Head Coach, the AISL Member Body’s HP Representative, and the High Performance Manager.
- 5.3 In order to be selected by the AOC as a member of the 2010 Australian Youth Olympic Team, each athlete must:
 - (1) have been nominated by AISL for selection by the AOC in accordance with Section 4 of these Guidelines;
 - (2) have signed (or if a minor, parent or guardian have signed) the 2010 Australian Youth Olympic Team Membership Agreement and agree to sign any entry form required by the IOC and the Organising Committee for the 2010 Youth Olympic Games;
 - (3) have observed and continue to observe the provisions of the AOC’s Constitution and its by-laws (as applicable) and must not have breached the AOC’s Anti-Doping By-Law unless the athlete has already been sanctioned for the breach and has completed the sanction imposed. A copy of AOC By-Laws are available from olympics.com.au;
 - (4) undergo medical assessment and testing (if requested) to the complete satisfaction of the AOC;
 - (5) have disclosed information to the Athlete’s NF or the AOC concerning any conduct that might breach the code of conduct required of Athletes selected to an Australian Youth Olympic Team under the 2010 Australian Youth Olympic Team Membership Agreement.
 - (6) acknowledges that any matter arising under clauses (1) – (5) above is to be determined, or breach thereof excused, by the AOC in its sole and absolute discretion.

If, in the opinion of the AOC, an Athlete fails to comply with one or more of the requirements in (1) – (6) above, that Athlete will be ineligible for selection by the AOC.

AISL will nominate athletes to the AOC for selection to the 2010 Australian Youth Olympic Team. The AOC has the sole and absolute discretion:

- (1) to determine whether an Athlete (or team where applicable) has met the requirements of selection;
- (2) to determine whether or not it should select the maximum number of Athletes (or teams where applicable) permitted by the Qualification System, notwithstanding the number of Athletes who may have met the requirements of selection and/or the Qualification System.
