Statement of Commitment Schedule

Australian International Shooting Limited, with the support of the Australian Sports Commission, is committed to Project CONNECT's Mission of creating Shooting Sport pathways for athletes with a disability by breaking down the barriers to participation within Shooting.

With the use of Project CONNECT's three key focus areas of Development, Participation and Competition, Australian International Shooting Limited aims to:

- To provide people with disabilities equal access to services and facilities.
- Provide opportunities for people with disabilities to be involved and participate in Shooting.
- Make available to people with disabilities a variety of options, from recreational to competitive, and from local to international standards.
- Improve teaching, coaching and preparation of athletes with a disability.
- Develop a network and structure, which will provide people with disabilities a sound direction to participate, compete and achieve.
- Promote Shooting for people with a disability to increase the profile and community awareness.
- Increase the number of participants in Shooting.
- Encourage all clubs and associations to undertake or to be involved in programs for members with disabilities.
- Ensure participants with disabilities are valued for their ability and skill level rather than their disability.
